

Domestic and Family Violence in Refugee Background Communities; Community Perspectives on Best Practice Principles for Perpetrator Interventions Forum

This forum is an opportunity for attendees to learn about the research findings from the ‘Best Practice Principles with Domestic and Family Violence Perpetrators from Refugee Backgrounds’ study coordinated by UWA in partnership with ASeTTS (funded by ANROWS).

Attendees will also hear from diverse speakers on how the Principles could aid formal and informal interventions to domestic and family violence in refugee communities.

Men’s behaviour change practitioners will benefit greatly from participation.

National Guest Speaker

We are fortunate to have Rodney Vlasis from Victoria delivering the key note address. Rodney is a psychologist with significant experience in men’s behaviour change program work and the delivery of counselling and clinical services more broadly. As a highly acclaimed practitioner, Rodney has more than two decades experience.
